Science Fables

The Body's Hidden Frame

Story Quiz

This quiz follows the story's exploration of the skeleton and how bones support, protect, and help the body move.

1. What is the skeleton's main job?

A. To digest food
B. To support and give shape to the body
C. To pump blood
D. To carry oxygen

2. Which bones protect the brain?

A. The ribs
B. The spine
C. The skull
D. The pelvis

3. What important organs are protected by the rib cage?

A. The stomach and kidneys
B. The heart and lungs
C. The brain and eyes
D. The hands and feet

4. How do bones help the body move?

A. Bones work with muscles and joints
B. Bones move without any help
C. Bones fill with air
D. Bones turn into muscles

5. What is a joint?

A. A place where two or more bones meet
B. A type of muscle
C. A layer of skin
D. A blood vessel inside a bone

Answer Key

1. B — To support and give shape to the body

The skeleton's main job is to support and give shape to the body.

2. C — The skull

The skull protects the brain.

3. B — The heart and lungs

The rib cage protects the heart and lungs.

4. A — Bones work with muscles and joints

Bones help the body move by working with muscles and joints.

5. A — A place where two or more bones meet

A joint is a place where two or more bones meet.